Call for Proposals

The Annual Leadership and Management Conference is an opportunity to learn new techniques, network, become inspired, renew our passion for teaching, and transform the ordinary into the extraordinary. HECT instructors are encouraged to share their expertise and materials with other conference attendees. There will be four groups of concurrent sessions offered during the conference to allow opportunities to learn new teaching strategies, new technology, what's new in the various pathway programs, legislation affecting education, and much more.

Secondary Administrator Recognitions Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize annually a maximum of five secondary administrators for demonstrated leadership in developing, supporting, encouraging, and maintaining strong Home Economics Careers and Technology Education programs in their respective schools, districts, counties, and Regional Occupational Centers or Programs.
